

STEVE STREIMER

STEVE STREIMER BIO

Now in his sixth year with Lux Performance Group, Steve Streimer has established himself as a player in the one-make Porsche 911 Pirelli GT3 Cup Trophy USA Series on the west coast. After starting his career behind the wheel of a Porsche Cayman for several track days, Steve started racing competitively in 2010 with a 2004 Porsche 911 GT3 Cup car. He campaigned the Porsche in both SCCA and Pirelli GT3 Cup Series posting strong results. In 2012, he progressed up to a 2008 Porsche 911 GT3 Cup car running in the SCCA's GT2 class and the Gold class of the Pirelli GT3 Cup Series.

Continued strong performances in 2014 in the Lux-prepared 911 GT3 Cup car, including finishing 2nd in Gold Class Championship point standings in the Pirelli GT3 Cup Series and eighteen top five finishes throughout the season, have raised expectations for 2015 as Steve begins his professional career running in Trans Am TA31, driving a 2010 SRT Viper ACRX.
